ALBURY ESTATE CLASSIC CUVEE (ORGANIC) SURREY HILLS, ENGLAND 12%ABV

Made from the classic Champagne varietals Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier & Chardonnay, the grapes are not only organic but the vineyard also practices biodynamic farming, both of which are very rare to find in English vineyards. The wines displays fresh & lively, the ripe acidity is complimented by a subtle sweetness, which is pleasing. The biodynamic grapes leave a mouth filling & long finish that lingers & satisfies.

WHITE

SAUVIGNON DE TOURAINE, DOMAINE RENAUDIE, LOIRE, FRANCE 2016 12%ABV

This is small family run winery with husband and wife Patricia et Bruno, the vineyards are a stone throw from the famous vineyards of Sancerre although the Sauvignon Blanc produced here is of the same quality for much less of the price tag. This is a full and fruity style of Sauvignon Blanc similar in style to New Zealand with all the class and refinement of the Loire.

PECORINO 'AVALOS' CANTINE ILAURI, ABRUZZO, ITALY 2015 13%ABV

A rare white variety native to Les Marches that was almost extinct a decade ago. So called because the ripe bunches of grapes resemble the face of a woolly sheep, or because the local Pecorino sheep nibbled the grapes. Waxy, almond flavours wrapped around a bright, mineral core with pear, apple and lime notes. A wine for the adventurous that will reward in spades.

CHABLIS, DOMAINE JEAN-MARC BROCARD, BURGUNDY, FRANCE %ABV

Jean Marc Brocard is committed to remaining true to the traditions and soil of Burgundy. This unoaked wine has delicate, floral and mineral notes with a great citrus weight and a clean finish. The land that the grapes are sourced is heavy with chalk, limestone and fossilized oyster shells, a type of soil called 'Kimmeridgian'.

CABERNET SAUVIGNON 'REGIO' LODI, CALIFORNIA, USA 2012 13.5%ABV

Scotto family cellars are a fifth generation of winemakers that started when Anthony Sr.'s grandfather Dominic emigrated to the U.S. from Ischia, Italy in 1903 and settled in a Brooklyn brownstone not far from the docks where he worked as a ship's caulker. Dominic taught his sons to make wine, which they sold in gallon crocks from his horse-drawn wagon. Dominic opened Scotto Liquors a few years later, a neighbourhood retail shop that is still in business today.

AMARONE DELLA VALPOLICELLA LE TOBELE, VENETO, ITALY 2013 15%ABV

The Amarone style developed as Veneto's winemakers searched for a way to increase the body, complexity and alcohol content of their wines. The grapes used to make Amarone are picked in whole bunches and kept in drying rooms where they stay for anywhere from three weeks to three months. This gives the wine a full and luxurious mouth fill with concentrated cherry fruit.
